Dress Code – 2014/2015; 5775

Proper dress is one of the many factors that influence the atmosphere at the Yeshivah. In Judaism, respect and modesty plays a significant role in education and appropriate dress is a form of derech eretz.

Students must dress neatly, modestly and appropriately for a makom kadosh and academic environment in accordance with the Yeshivah's dress code at all times, including whenever they enter or leave the Yeshivah.

Regular school dress is required after gym, and team practices. Students leaving for games or practices off grounds must also maintain regular school dress code. Boys must wear kipot before entering the building and upon leaving the building any time of the day or night.

Any student who is not dressed according to the school dress code will not be allowed into the Yeshivah. If during the course of the school day a student changes into unacceptable clothing, he/she will be required to sign out and return home for the day.

The following will serve as a guide for proper dress in our Yeshivah:

BOYS' GUIDELINES:

- Only dress or "Dockers" style, conservatively colored pants may be worn.
- Sweatpants, jeans, tight, or low-waisted pants are not permitted.
- Collared shirts must be worn, either button down or polo style. Collars must be showing.
- Regular turtle-neck shirts may be worn.
- Collared shirts must be worn under sweaters or sweatshirts.
- Sweatshirts with large or inappropriate prints or loud colors are not permitted.
- Only shoes and sneakers with backs are permitted.
- Socks must be worn at all times.
- Kipot are the only acceptable head covering. No caps or hats are permitted.
- Boys must be clean-shaven; beards and/or mustaches or goatees or lengthy sideburns are not permitted.
- Haircuts must be in a moderate style; excessively long or short hair is not permitted. Boys may be sent home to shave or get haircuts.
- Body piercing of any kind is not permitted.
- Tzitzit should be worn.

GIRLS' GUIDELINES:

- Girls must wear dresses or skirts and blouses.
- All skirts must be mid-calf or longer.
- All shirts and tops must have a neckline that covers to the collarbone.
- All tops must be long enough to cover the middle of the body, even when leaning over or raising one's hand.
- Tight, sleeveless, "cap" sleeved, tank and sheer tops are not permitted.
- Scarves or jackets may not be worn over an inappropriate shirt.
- Conservatively colored T-shirts and sweatshirts are permitted; shirts with inappropriate prints or lettering are not permitted.
- Only shoes with backs are permitted.
- Only one earring per earlobe is permitted.
- Leggings to the ankle are permitted.
- Head coverings are not allowed, including caps, hats, or headscarves.
- Beaded, corn-rowed, or unusually colored hair is not permitted.

Students are asked to be vigilant about adhering to the dress code of the Yeshivah, and parents – the Yeshivah's partners – are asked to ensure that their children's dress is in compliance with the rules.

Ultimately, teachers and principals, at their discretion, will determine the appropriateness of a student's attire.
